

Required for 1st September 2024
A later start will be considered for the right candidate

Teacher of English
Permanent – Full-time
(Part-time 0.8 or 0.6 will be considered for the right candidate)

Salary: Teachers Scale

We are looking for an outstanding and passionate Teacher of English to join our hard-working, reflective and forward thinking English Faculty - it is a flagship Faculty with a team of superb teachers who work together extremely well. We seek someone who will inspire our pupils, nurturing and guiding them to excel in English and grow as an individual. This is primarily a full-time permanent position, however a 0.6 or 0.8 contract will be considered for the right candidate. If your preference is a 0.8 or 0.6 contract, please address this in your application.

Working within our outstanding English Faculty, the successful candidate will be enthusiastic and willing to teach KS3 and KS4 English Language and Literature across the school, as well as contributing to a highly inclusive and successful extra-curricular programme. Pupil progress for English is outstanding. The English Faculty, year on year, support pupils to achieve outstanding GCSE examination results in both Language and Literature. In 2023, Fairfield pupils achieved an amazing 109 Grade 9s at GCSE level, 35 of which were in English. The Faculty is a beacon of excellence within the school.

We encourage you to come and see our outstanding English practitioners at work. Please contact the Faculty Leader for English/Assistant Headteacher, Mrs Plant - plant@fairfieldhighschool.co.uk - so you can come and see the work of the Faculty you will be joining.

As a highly popular and oversubscribed 11-16 girls' Academy with just under 1000 pupils, we have a reputation for outstanding teaching and learning. This is achieved through a supportive programme of personal development, high expectations of pupil behaviour, academic rigour and a strongly inclusive ethos.

We are excited to be able to offer this position to join a welcoming and supportive team, in a positive work environment, where you can make a valued contribution to our continuous development. Working in the English Faculty would offer you the opportunity to collaborate with practitioners who are committed to professional development and have the highest expectations of and aspirations for the pupils they serve. We have high expectations of ourselves and each other, but we are always ready to support one another, too.

Further information and an application form can be obtained from the TES or on our website at:
www.fairfieldhighschool.co.uk

CLOSING DATE: 9.00am on Friday 5th July 2024

INTERVIEWS: w/c Monday 8th July 2024 – date to be confirmed

Prospective candidates are encouraged to submit their applications as soon as possible as the school reserves the right to close the advert should we feel able to appoint an appropriate candidate.

Fairfield is an equal opportunities employer, who is committed to safeguarding and promoting the wellbeing of all children and expects our staff and volunteers to share this commitment. This post is subject to an Enhanced DBS Disclosure.